Language Arts

- Teachers are turning in DRA this week and results will be reported ASAP.
- The reading incentive program is getting close to ending. The students will be dunking me on the last day of school. ☺ The students are in the process of pledging on an online data base to read a certain amount of books this year. We are having different guest from the community...swearing them in. We are then having judges come to school and swear the parents in during Cubs Club. Thanks to Arkema.... Summer packets will be going home with our students. We are so excited about this program.

- Summer School is just around the corner. We have been busy getting the appropriate students enrolled in this program. This has been a fulltime job! Many parents are being asked by many people before they finally say yes!
