

Family and Community Services:

- A list of needs is being composed from the Family Interest Surveys to be used to schedule trainings for the upcoming year.
- Policy Council Ballots are being collected and a new council will be voted in by Friday September 16th.

Education/Early Child Development:

- Writing consultant, Matt Glover, conducted professional development for both Head Start and Winn staff.
- Head Start continues to offer services using the home-based model.

Program Design and Management:

- Plans are underway to move programs into the child development center. Early Head Start will begin services in our new location on Tuesday, Sept. 20. Head Start will begin center-based services on Monday, October 10.
- Staff meetings are being held as needed.
- Bi-lingual instructional assistant position has been filled by Nuris Widich.
- Family Service Worker position has been filled by Amy Saggus
- Coordinator attended preschool cadre meeting at the OVEC offices in Shelbyville.

Governance:

- Policy council will meet on Tuesday, Sept. 20.
- New council orientation has been scheduled.